Who's That Man?

Marny Duncan-Cary & Megan Mansbridge

Your Nickel's Worth Publishing is pleased to present Who's That Man? a vibrant children's book written by award-winning Saskatchewan singer/songwriter Marny Duncan-Cary, based on the song from her debut album, Reason for Bein'.

Beautifully illustrated by artist Megan Mansbridge, Who's That Man? captures the poignant first moment of meeting between a father and son separated by war.

Reasonably priced at $24.95, Who's That Man? is the ideal way to acknowledge those in the armed services and their families. A DVD containing a video of the book set to the music of the original song, as well as an interview with the subject of the book is also included. Who's That Man? is available at Book & Brier Patch in Regina, McNally Robinson in Saskatoon, and can also be purchased online at: www.yournickelsworth.com, www.amazon.ca or www.girlsinger.ca.
